All,

We need to temporarily hit the “pause” button on issuing the release as we need to work through an issue that has come up and has not yet been resolved. I will let you know when we are ready to go, but in the meantime, please sit tight on making notifications or issuing the press release regarding the winter treatment at GKM.

Matt and Mathy,

We are planning to release the announcement on the winter treatment. The draft press release is below. We consulted with the State (CDPHE and DRMS) on this approach and they concur.

The plan is to make notifications to elected officials tomorrow morning at 11:00 a.m. EST, then issue the press statement at noon.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Shaun
